

CONFLICT in South Sudan

On 15 December 2013, conflict broke out in the world's youngest nation, South Sudan as a result of fighting between Government and Opposition forces, led by President Salva Kiir and former Vice President Riek Machar, respectively. Eighteen months on, the fighting continues and the parties have yet to reach a comprehensive peace agreement.

MULTIPLE VIOLATIONS of 1 cessation of hostilities agreement

18 months of FIGHTING

over 150,000 people sheltering in

6 UNMISS bases across South Sudan

over 1,600,000 have been DISPLACED

10s of THOUSANDS are KILLED

4.6 MILLION face FOOD INSECURITY

600,000 FORCED to flee into neighbouring countries.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE has been committed by main parties to the conflict and reported in all 10 states

THOUSANDS of CHILDREN recruited & used by all parties to the conflict

UNMISS UN Mission in South Sudan

POLICE < 994

MILITARY 11,529

TOTAL troops on the ground > 12,523
as of 30.06.15