

UNOCI – 945

PRESS RELEASE

UNOCI CHIEF MEETS ANGOLA'S AMBASSADOR TO COTE D'IVOIRE

Abidjan, 10 December 2010... The Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary-General for Côte d'Ivoire, Y J Choi, met with Angola's Ambassador to Côte d'Ivoire, Gilberto Buta Lutucuta, on Friday in Abidjan to discuss the Ivorian electoral process.

"We discussed the post-election situation," Mr. Choi said after the thirty-minute meeting at the Angolan Embassy in Abidjan.

The UN Operation in Côte d'Ivoire (UNOCI) chief is currently multiplying contacts with the Ivorian actors and members of the diplomatic corps to find a peaceful solution to the political impasse that developed after the second round of the presidential election, held on 28 November 2010.

Ambassador Lutucuta has been in office in Côte d'Ivoire since 12 December 2007.
